

BNC RULES

Contests sponsored by the Georgia Press Association offer recognition in the form of a plaque or certificate for outstanding or meritorious newspaper work, thereby helping to improve our newspapers in Georgia.

CONTEST DEADLINE: All entries must be submitted online and postmarked by Feb. 1, 2017.

TO ENTER, LOGIN at www.newspapercontest.com/Georgia. Your Association code is GAPRESS.

Each newspaper may designate ONLY ONE username and password to make entries in editorial contest. Username and password should be different from username and password for Better Newspaper Advertising Contest.

All entries must be submitted online unless otherwise noted in the rules.

For questions please contact GPA at 770-454-6776 or sireland@gapress.org.

Judges are asked to give comments on all winning entries. First-place winners' comments will be printed in the BNC tabloid.

1. Online entries must be submitted by Feb. 1, 2017, and required hard-copy entries must be postmarked by Feb. 1, 2017, to the Executive Director of Georgia Press Association, 3066 Mercer University Drive, Suite 200, Atlanta, Ga. 30341-4137. Absolutely no extensions. Online entry system is deactivated after the deadline.

2. Contest is open to all active and media associate members of the Georgia Press Association. Entry fee is $9 per entry, per category, except for General Excellence and Photo of the Year. All entered newspapers are automatically entered in the General Excellence competition and all first-place photos are entered in the Photo of the Year competition.

3. The contest is for work published from January 1, 2016, through December 31, 2016.

4. Tri-weeklies, semi-weeklies or twins will be considered weeklies and will submit consecutive issues from one week or consecutive issues from a two-week period. A consecutive issue is defined as the next day of publication for dailies and weeklies or the next day that particular section is published.

5. The circulation figure printed in the 2017 Georgia Press Association membership directory will be the official figure used for determining division placement. For weeklies published more than once per week, division placement will be determined by multiplying the circulation figure by the number of days per week published. A newspaper's number of publication days prior to July 15 will be used to determine the entry division for that newspaper in that contest year.

6. Division classification for entries to be submitted in each category will be as follows:

Division A will include all daily newspapers having 18,000 or more circulation;

Division B will include all daily newspapers having 8,000 to 17,999 circulation;

Division C will include all daily newspapers having less than 8,000 circulation;

Division D will include all weekly newspapers with circulation of 6,000 to 15,000;

Division E will include all weekly newspapers having 3,000 to 5,999 circulation;

Division F will include all weekly newspapers having less than 3,000 circulation;

Division G will include weekly newspapers with circulation of 15,000 or greater and all Media Associate members.

Newspaper companies that publish morning/afternoon combinations shall enter in the division of their Sunday circulation. In the case of entries by a combined newspaper (newspaper with a separate masthead that is a product of two newspaper staffs), the two newspapers must decide under which member newspaper the combined newspaper will enter. In any given year, all points will be awarded to the newspaper that was chosen.

7. If less than four newspapers enter a category for divisions A through F, the entry will move up to the next division to compete. If less than four newspapers enter a category for division G, all non-daily newspapers with circulation of 15,000 or more must compete in the equivalent daily division and all other newspapers compete in the equivalent weekly division.

8. In the case of ties for General Excellence, the following formula will be used: Stage 1 - The newspaper with the most first places in the Better Newspaper Contest will win. Stage 2 - If there is still a tie, the newspaper with the most points in the following categories will win: Layout and Design, Editorial Page, Lifestyle Coverage, Sports Section and Local News. This tiebreaker system will be used for first and second place. All third-place ties will be awarded a third-place win.

9. Submit one copy of each exhibit (entry) for each separate category you enter. Publishers entering two or more categories must submit separate entries (exhibits) for each category entered.

10. Each newspaper must enter all categories into the online system (even for hard-copy submissions) under one username and password (different from username and password for Better Newspaper Advertising Contest) and pay with a credit card via telephone, file a credit authorization form or mail a check to GPA to cover all entry fees.

11. Judging shall be done by out-of-state judges. Only daily or weekly judges will judge respective entries.

12. Plaques will be awarded to first-place winners in each classification. Certificates will be presented to second- and third-place winners in each classification. No honorable mentions will be awarded.

13. No entries shall be returned. All entries become the property of the Georgia Press Association.

14. In categories 11-31, 33 and 35, newspapers may submit entries for more than one individual staffer.

15. The same story or photo may not be submitted in more than one division. If a story or photo was published in multiple newspapers, it may only be submitted in the newspaper with the highest circulation.

16. Member newspapers may enter the individual writings of their news bureaus. Bureau reporters may only participate in categories 11-13 and 21-28. Entries will be in the highest circulation division of the newspapers represented.

17. All digital files must appear in their original form and not be altered after publication.

18. Hard-copy entries may be hand delivered on or before Feb. 1, 2017, between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.
