The David E. Hudson Open Government Award was created by the Georgia Press Association in 2008. The award will be presented to a Georgia publication or individual who has shown support for the cause of sunshine in government through publication, research, legislation or other action deemed worthy of receiving this honor. This award is presented annually during the GPA Annual Convention, this year to be held at the Jekyll Island Club Hotel from June 7 to 9, 2018.

Professional Achievement: Please attach a description of the nominee's professional background, achievements, awards and activities, which illustrate how the nominee exemplifies the best in journalism regarding open government and serves as an inspiration to others.

Community Leadership: Please attach a description of how the nominee is an advocate for the cause of sunshine in government and how he/she serves the community, state and/or region by being such. Provide specific examples and the outcome.

Please return this form by Friday, May 4, 2018 to:

Georgia Press Association
Attn: David E. Hudson Award
3066 Mercer University Drive, Suite 200
Atlanta, Georgia 30341

NOTE: If your nominee is among the top three candidates selected, you may be asked to provide additional information or letters of support.
